Nor is there any explicit street violence in the streets. But youth are engaged in massive online and offline protests, with unsanctioned rallies and gatherings taking place around the country. They have used the hashtag "You Stink," sparking the slogan "The people of the square shall win." Facebook users in particular have become central to the mobilization. In Cairo's Tahrir Square, where some 4 million people gathered to support the demand for regime change, young people maintain the main network of social media discussion forums. The young are the most active networkers, suggesting that the online and offline protests will continue to blend in a way not witnessed before. Arrests and 3da54e8ca3
