This is not a time for mourning. It is a time for rallying. For we must not allow anything to happen to the world as we know it. The world has become something which only the strongest, most heartless, and most ruthless can look at and feel no pity for. It is the only planet in existence with nukes capable of destroying everything on it. We are facing the greatest and most dangerous threat to the world in our time. It is clearly stated, by the powers that be, that we have not only the right, but the obligation to destroy all life on the planet. We don't need to listen to anyone but the military people. We don't need to listen to anyone but our own governments. Yes, the world is at an end. No, it will not be an apocalypse, as it is a lot worse than an apocalypse. We're all doomed. Every last one of us. If you think for one second that any form of action by anyone other than the government will save you, you are in trouble. If you think that any form of non-violent resistance will save you, you are in trouble. If you think that you are somehow immune to this fate, you are in trouble. If you think for one second that this problem can't be fixed by people with guns and bombs, you are in trouble. There is no escaping this fate. We are all on our own. No, this is not a hoax. I'm really and truly serious about this. We live in a world in which we have the knowledge, the tools, and the weapons to kill all life on the planet, and we are in control of those things. All we have to do is let the military people
